

CHITOFORCE

Foliar-active formula | 100% biodegradable

Chitoforce is a product of animal origin, made from crustacean shells. It activates the plant's natural defenses against fungi and bacteria and is used in agricultural crops.

Application and dosage:

Fruit crops: 1-3 L/ha.

Applications should be carried out every 14 days, starting from the 1st leaf stage until fruit development.

Vegetable crops: 1-3 L/ha in 150-1000 L/ha of water.

Applications should be carried out every 14 days, starting from the 1st leaf stage until fruit development, with up to 8 applications at 2-week intervals.

Authorized for market release according to Article 28 of Regulation CE 1107/2009. The product has no waiting period.

Miscibility:

Do not mix with alkaline products with a pH above 8.

Do not mix with boron! It is always recommended to conduct a compatibility test on the crops.

Packaging: 5 L (6.25 kg)

Composition:

Chitosan hydrochloride: 7.5% (75 g/L)

Chitosan hydrochloride (7.5%), approved as a basic substance under EU Regulation No. 563/2014.

In accordance with the requirements of Regulation (EC) 1069/09.

Technical data:

Specific weight at 20° C: 1.15 kg/L

